

We were recently informed about a consultation paper issued by the Legal Services Board, which focuses on a section 69 Order relating to the scope of regulation by the Institute of Trade Mark Attorneys.

Having considered the proposals raised in the paper, this is just to confirm that the Solicitors Regulation Authority has no specific comments at this time.

Richard Silver
Policy Officer
Solicitors Regulation Authority