Subject: BVC/BPTC IELTS

Dear Sir/Madam,

We are a group of students writing to you regarding the inadequate standards of the BVC/BPTC course. Our complaint is centered on the guidelines for International students who come to undertake the course. Since we have started the course we have found it very difficult to focus on our course where a group of International students have been granted admission without the IELTS requirement. We understand that for some International students it is a requirement to study in the UK for them to practise. We have come across students with 7.5 who are coping very well on the course, so it is evident that our provider is giving places to students without the score. Furthermore, we have contacted other students in different institutions who have confirmed that there has been International students admitted without the IELTS score. We have spoken to such students who think they can get away because they have paid for the course.

We hope that you would be kind enough to look into these problems as it is hindering our own studies, tutors are spending considerable time focusing on the basics so they understand the topic, this is leaving us with small amounts of time to focus on the course on a deeper level. This is an anonymous email address but we hope our concerns will be addressed.

Regards
Students of the BVC

From final year UK Law student

From: XXX [xxx.xxx@xxx.ac.uk]

To: Valerie Shrimplin

Dear Sir/Madam

I am writing regarding qualified law degree. I am a final year law student at university of XXX [UK post 92 university]. I am facing some problem with qualified law degree. Last year I was attended on Equity and Trust exam, there was 25 % Mcq and 75% written exam but unfortunately i was failed on 25% exam and i passed on 75% with 55% mark. Due to my father illness i was unable to join resit exam for 25% which one was in July 2011. For this reason university pushed me to retake this module and put there i attempted 2 times for both exam. However, I took this module this year but i was asking my module leader to take both exams in same day for me and he agreed. I was attended for both exam in same day January 2012 but this time i got 60% marks for Mcq but I failed for 75% because of stress. Now university saying I was attempted 3 times even for 75% which one I was passed last year and they will not give me qualified law degree without Bar Standards Board's permission, even if I passed on this 75%. Could you please explain me what procedure should i follow to get qualified law degree, if I don't get qualified law degree then it will effect on my future life.

Kind regards

XXX

Subject: Feedback regarding IELTS

Dear Sir

This is [REDACTED] writing from [REDACTED]. I would like to state that the recent requirement of BSB for the BPTC which is IELTS 7.5 is being a very tough situation for students. I would request you to please low down the requirement if possible to a reasonable extent so that students from Asian countries can come and study BPTC. In our country most of the students choose to study UK LLB only because they want to become Barrister, and those who dont they usually study the [REDACTED] LLB. Due to this high score of IELTS many students are being discouraged to choose to study BPTC as well as Law. In such a situation we request you to please low down this requirement for the betterment of students of [REDACTED].

Thank You

Hi

ouble staa

I am a law student and successfully completed my LLB with a 2.2. Many students like me offered for BVC from different institute, but at last unfortunately we cannot make a way to the BVC because of the IELTS requirements, fixed by the BAR STANDARD BOARD. Now we come to know that few institutes maintaining the double standards such as ICSL and Northumbria. Few Bangladeshi students demanded English as their first language, if they will sit for IELTS, no one will able to achieve 6 also, but after that they got a chance for anyone's dreaming course. It's come to our knowledge that few students are entered by telephone interviewing. The interview was really a funny one and just asked only 2 questions like what is your name and why do you want to do BVC. If it is seems equivalent with IELTS 7.5 to the Bar Standard Board, then we have nothing to say but doing injustice towards few people who are going to miss their one year. So far we know that, this year it should not be happen, and if it is so then what is our fault, why are we out of this course. Few people just avoid the deposit money as because they are frequently answered that they would not going to consider .5 also. Now what was their fault in that particular case. So what we will do, we have our degree but few people are going to be a Barrister with 33 marks in a subject like jurisprudence. We are just speechless and heart is bleeding.

We will be pleased if anyone can explain us why this double standard are maintained and why Bar Standard Board doing like this.

Dear Ms Maddison,

The University of London has been made aware of fraudulent student results having been circulated to students connected with the "English Legal Education System" institution in [REDACTED]. These concerned second year results for our LLB programme. The correct results were issued from London but the results sheets, by the time they had been supplied to the students, included some inflated component marks.

Our investigations to date suggest that the students concerned are innocent victims of a scam designed to either enhance or damage the reputation of their teaching institution. Inevitably however, some of the students will have used these second year results in good faith when applying to other institutions such as yours.

I have good reason to believe that this is the case for a student called [REDACTED]

Should you need to validate the accuracy of any University of London results supplied to you then please do not hesitate to contact me directly. I should stress that we believe the students concerned have acted in good faith and to be victims of a scam. There is also no question over the accuracy of the assessment or grading which has at all times been conducted by our team in London.

Yours sincerely,

Andrew Bollington

Dear Mr Pace

Thank you for your response to my email. I am fully delighted to acknowledge the fact that the Bar Standards Board and the Providers of the BVC are working together to ensure the entry requirements are maintained.

Relying on your assurance that all information I supply to you will be dealt with in a confidential manner I am ready to inform you some of my fellow candidates' names so that it becomes easy for you to monitor the situation.

Candidates like [REDACTED] and more four or five candidates with the help of their respected teachers are planning a solution to avoid the IELTS requirements and get easy access to BVC by claiming English as their First language which I fear is completely untrue.

I request you to take strong action against them and allow genuine candidates to study BVC.

Subject: Special Tribunal

Dear Nick

I write with some hesitation to ask for your help. The Inn has recently come across certain difficulties with regard to the provision of members of the Inn representing students at Special Tribunals or before the Visitors. The Code of Conduct requires that a barrister be instructed by a solicitor or be licensed to conduct direct access work. Clearly the Inn who is bringing the case against the student will not pay for the student's access to a solicitor nor can the student possibly afford to instruct one himself. The BSB has instructed a member of the Complaints Committee to investigate this situation. In this case the hearing however is on Thursday 15 October at 5.30 pm and the student only asked for representation today although he had been given a barrister representative earlier. Unfortunately he dispensed with her as she was too pessimistic about his chances! He desperately needs representation as part of his case is that he is unable to succeed without cheating because of a learning difficulty! It may surprise you to know that he has a LLB and LLM yet an IQ below 70! [REDACTED] X

Very recently we have asked counsel to seek a waiver from the requirement from the BSB. Fortunately in that case there was time to do so and a meeting of the appropriate committee to allow the decision making to proceed.

As you are an immigration judge you are, I imagine, no longer subordinate to the Code of Conduct. Nor, as far as I can establish, are you prohibited from assisting a student by presenting his plea of mitigation. As you know the Inn cannot go behind the finding of the provider. The student is accused of serious plagiarism. He is hoping to avoid being expelled. Should he be so expelled I have no doubt he will also appeal to the Visitor but by the time that happens I hope that we would have resolved the problem of barristers appearing pro bono for students both in domestic and Visitors hearings and that a junior member of the Bar will be able to assist the student.

You can imagine that this situation is causing considerable difficulties in all the Inns over the administration of their own hearings and before the Visitors. Sadly we have no idea who of our members has a direct access license which makes it all the more difficult.

I look forward to hearing from you as soon as possible.

Best wishes

David

Re: Application for endorsement to be awarded competent in BVC due to exceptional circumstances

Dear Members of the Committee,

The matter to which I am gravely concerned and outlining below regards my BVC results in BPP Law School, Holborn, London. I did pass eleven modules of my BVC last year; however, unfortunately I got failed twice in my Negotiation assessment. Following the Rules and Regulations of the BPP Law School, I waited for my final Negotiation re-sit due on 13th March 2008 as there was no opportunity to sit for the assessment in 2007. Although I put a great deal of efforts to hone my negotiation skills over this period of time, unfortunately I got medical problem in respect of my urinary bladder near the exams. Most importantly, my elder brother fell victim to a suicide blast on 11th March 2008 in [REDACTED]. I felt deeply depressed and shocked at this extremely unpleasant news.

As a result, I could not concentrate on my Negotiation re-sit. Nevertheless, I decided to sit for the assessment for many good reasons, which I will outline below. Due to my medical problems and particularly shock of my brother's incident, my performance was severely and substantially impaired. In fairness, I struggled to concentrate during the whole assessment. Although I passed the exams with 50% marks, yet unfortunately, I failed in MPC (Must Pass Criteria). As a result of my third and final attempt in Negotiation assessment, pursuant to regulation 4.2 of the Assessment Regulations, I have failed the BVC overall subject to my application for concession or appeal. Although I have submitted my application for concession; however I have been told that the Examinations Board will sit probably on 16th June 2008 to consider, inter alia, concession applications. Hence, I was not allowed to take re-sit for Negotiation due on 23rd May 2008 rather I was told to wait for outcome of my concession application.

On the basis of independent evidences particularly medical certificates, I can say with reasonable certainty that the Examinations Board will accept my concession application. As a result I will be allowed to take final re-sit in 2009. However, this will affect me and my legal career on the following grounds:

- (a) Although I am not avoiding sitting for re-sit if the Examination Board accepts my concession application, I will have to stay in London for another year which will be a considerable financial burden which I cannot withstand at this time;
- (b) Neither I can go back to my home until or unless I qualify as barrister due to many personal as well as family reasons;

- (c) Even if I go back until assessment time, my father will not let me come back because I have told him that I have passed BVC due to many good reasons;
- (d) I will not be able to work as barrister for another year which may be milestone in my legal career; and
- (e) Last but not the least that it is increasing level of stress which I am unable to cope as I am already on medication in respect of my urinary bladder problem.

The reason I am putting my application to Education and Training Committee is that the Committee is "responsible for setting the standards of education and training that people must pass before being able to practice as barrister..." In addition, following Terms of Reference particularly term (b), the Committee is authorised to consider my application as I have exhausted remedies in respect of BPP Law School. Therefore, I request Education and Training Committee to consider my application in order to endorse me competent in my BVC results overall to be Called to the Bar on the following grounds:

- (a) I have overall passed the course except that I was failed by two marks in MPC which is due to above mentioned exceptional circumstances;
- (b) I was not given benefit of doubt given that I have passed the rest of the course;
- (c) I intend to practise in Pakistan, therefore; I absolutely do not reckon my negotiation and conference skills necessary or helpful on basis of style of legal practice there;
- (d) After passing all modules in BVC except MPC in Negotiation, the decision to fail me overall is extremely punitive and painful. Therefore, I request the Committee either to waive the rules and regulations in respect of BVC in my case on the basis of exception circumstances or to review these rules which are too stringent to provide academic relief to any student in my situation ;
- (e) I have spent more than twenty thousand pounds on BVC so far which I still owe to my bank. Hence it is of great importance to qualify as barrister and pay off debt;
- (f) I have a lot of family expectations, particularly my diabetic and heart patient mother; therefore, I can not afford to shock her, which may cause her heart attack, with my failure in BVC;
- (g) I have not seen my family for the last two years, particularly my elder brother after he sustained injuries in the blast; therefore I want to see my family but unfortunately I cannot do this until I pass my BVC;
- (h) I have been in extremely stressful and painful condition since I failed in Negotiation last year. Due to various reasons, I can not tell my family and friends about re-sit which, as a result, is increasing my stress and worries;
- (i) I was not drifted to law career but I have had passion for law. I passed my law degree with flying colours and scholarship. I have done five mini-pupillages and a marshalling with a county court judge. Moreover, I have completed my LLM in which I am expecting high 2.1 grades;
- (j) Law career is my passion and qualifying as barrister is of great importance to me in terms of my future career. If I fail in BVC, it will ruin my whole career and life for which I suffered a great deal of financial and physical hardships since I left home in 1996;

- (k) Having done my BA and MA in English Literature in [REDACTED] I came to UK to qualify as barrister rather than doing PhD in English Literature against wishes of my father. Therefore, to qualify as barrister is to justify my decision to come to law which I had planned during my secondary education;
- (l) I am willing to work for The Bar Council or for any good legal cause for any reasonable period of time on pro bono basis;
- (m) On merit and in consideration of all circumstances, I deserve to be awarded overall competent in BVC;
- (n) I am willing to accept any condition the bar standard board deem reasonable and in accordance with educational standards of the Bar if I am Called to the Bar in July 2008;
- (o) I reckon that it would not be a preferential treatment given above reasons;
- (p) Although I am capable of practising in England and Wales on the basis of my qualifications, if I am Called to the Bar, yet I am willing even to sign a declaration that I will not practise in England and Wales;
- (q) If however, the Committee considers that I should improve my negotiation skills, I am willing to shadow or work with any legal practitioner or negotiator so as to hone my skills. Because even if my concession application is approved by the Examinations Board in BPP Law School, I will not be able to improve my skills on my own as I am not allowed to participate in Small Group Session with other students. Hence, the whole year will further rust not only my negotiation skills but also all other skills which I acquired during Bar Vocational Course. In sum, "practice makes a man perfect" and consistent practice makes a good and outstanding barrister;
- (r) The so-called method of assessing the Negotiation skills is far from practical life which does not provide a real opportunity to reflect required skills of BVC students; and
- (s) On merit and in consideration of all circumstances, I deserve to be awarded overall competent in BVC.

In view of above grounds, I kindly request the Committee to award me competent overall to be Called to the Bar on 24th July 2008 (my Call date).

Should the Committee need any evidence with respect to above reasons, please let me know.

Yours sincerely,

[REDACTED]

I am a former solicitor 1982-2001 when I was struck off for accounts irregularities. I have a criminal record for dishonesty. Would these factors prevent me from qualifying as a barrister? If not would my past career provide me with any exemptions in qualifying?

Please give a full account of the reason(s) why your final result of your CPE/GDL/QLD will not be known until after the date upon which you intend to commence the Bar Vocational Course (Continue on a separate A4 sheet if necessary). When you have completed this section, please ensure that you sign and date the declaration on page four.

I AM 38 YEARS OLD AND LATELY HAVE BEEN SUFFERING FROM RIGHT SCIATICA ON AND OFF. I FELL SICK ON 26.5.2009 AFTER HAVING SAT FOR THE LAND LAW PAPER. MY DOCTOR ADVISED FOR AT LEAST ONE WEEK ~~OF~~ COMPLETE^{REST} I COULD NOT SIT FOR THE EQUITY & TRUSTS PAPER ON ~~THE~~ 28.5.2009. I THEREFORE APPLIED FOR DEFERRAL. HOWEVER ON 1.6.2009 MY TEMPTATION WAS GREAT TO SIT FOR THE LAW OF TORT PAPER AS I WAS FEELING A BIT RELIEVED - I REALISED MY MISTAKE DURING THE EXAMINATION. I THERE REALISED THAT MY PERFORMANCE HAS BEEN AFFECTED. I DID NOT REACH THE PASSMARK REQUIRED. NOW MY EXAMS ARE SCHEDULED AS FOLLOWS:

EQUITY & TRUSTS - 18.8.2009
TORT
- 19.8.2009.

RESULTS COULD BE RELEASED ON 22.9.2009, WHEREAS B.V.C at B.P.P LAW SCHOOL STARTS ON 3.8.2009.

WITH REGARD TO MY AGE AND STATE OF HEALTH, I WOULD NOT WISH TO ^{WAIT} UNTIL NEXT YEAR TO START THE COURSE, WHICH IS FOR 2 YEARS - PART TIME. FURTHER, I HAVE TO SPEND 2 MORE YEARS FOR TRAINING IN MAURITIUS

I THEREFORE MAKE AN APPEAL TO ALLOW ME ON HUMANITARIAN GROUNDS TO START THE COURSE.

Re: [REDACTED] /Student Number
0523265

I write to confirm that the above named person is a current student at the University of Wolverhampton studying a LLB honours degree course.

He is due to complete the course in May 2010 and graduate in September 2010.

He is a very pleasant, hard working, focused, motivated and determined individual who has a clear desire to seek a career in the field of Law.

He has demonstrated the ability to produce work of a very high standard, particularly in the latter years of his course.

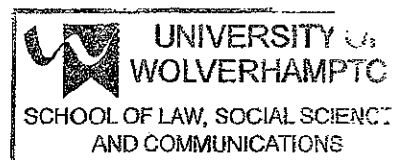

In the early stages of his course he encountered personal difficulties which unquestionably affected his performance, the number of attempts he had at core modules, his focus and general health. Recently, he appears to have overcome these difficulties, regain his focus and apply himself in an exemplary manner. This is portrayed via his grades at level three of his course; at a time when he was managing workload demands far higher than normal.

I can confirm that the University of Wolverhampton granted [REDACTED] more than three attempts at Public Law One, Tort 2, Property Law 1 and Property Law 2. His performance in these modules is listed below:

LW1019 Tort 2 (7 attempts to pass)
F1, F0, F3, F0, F3, F0, D

LW1030 Public Law 1 (4 attempts to pass)
F1, F0, F0, C

LW2043 Property Law 1 (4 attempts to pass)
F0, F1, F2, D5

LW2055 Property Law 2 (3 attempts to date)
F1, F0, F1, one attempt mitigated

He has the remaining modules/credits to complete in order to finish his course;

Level Two – 15 credits (Property Law 2)

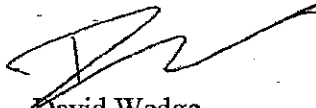

Level Three – 75 credits (EU Law, Company Law, Equity & Trusts 2, Welfare Law, and Introduction to Alternative Dispute Resolution)

It is predicted that he will obtain a 2:2 (lower second class) award.

Please find his academic transcript attached along with further information relating to the University's grading system.

I believe [REDACTED] has the academic intellect and career drive to successfully pursue a career in Law.

Importance: High

Dear Mr Behr,

With reference to our communication made last year. Now I am 24 years old and want to participate in the Bar at Law programme (I will be 25 years of age on 14th September 2010)

But fairly speaking, as you were explained earlier I entered my practical life when I was 16 years of age now accumulating a total professional experience of 8 years including working in the field of computing, law and management.

I did Matriculation (Equivalent to 'O' Level in 2000 - 2001) I did Higher Nationals in Computing (EdExcel International) (2004) I did Diploma in Law (University of London, External System) (2008)

Sir, I understand that your rules are very important, but please consider my practical experience and wish to do Bar as I always heard from my four fathers that English Men always support the logical argument and modify the rules for the betterment of humanity, and this is the reason they always ruled the world! X

Thanking you in anticipation.

Dear Sir,

It is really pathetic you are saying you are maintaining Quality but unfortunately Northumbria University does not maintain this. It is a stupid University. Giving preference from personal contract of their representative but making statement we are maintaining Quality. In Bangladesh, University authority met few students individually and gave them preference. If you look at their offer you must see most of the student were Bangladeshi and from one institution. It is incredible all good students study in one institution. They are making corruption we have no problem, but I am depriving from our right, All providers want to give preference from first choice, if I would know their corruption I would not think to give them first choice. Now I have to wait 1 year.

Please Sir take any step in this regard.

BAR PROFESSIONAL TRAINING COURSE

Answer Sheet

EXAM ID: [REDACTED]

INSTRUCTIONS

Read the instructions before you start to fill in the answers.

How to fill in your candidate number

1. Check your Provider code in the box titled 'PROVIDER CODES' on this sheet. Clearly write this code in the first two boxes under the title 'CANDIDATE NUMBER' AND mark your Provider code in the vertical lines provided below the corresponding boxes.
2. You must then clearly write your candidate number in the remaining boxes AND mark your candidate number on the remaining vertical lines.
3. If your candidate number does not contain letters, write a forward slash in the THIRD and FOURTH boxes and mark each corresponding vertical line as 'N/A'.
4. If a box in the numerical field is not relevant for your candidate number, write a forward slash in it and mark the vertical line as '0'.
5. You MUST ensure that ALL of these boxes are completed so that your sheet can be read.
6. For example, a student at BPP Leeds with a student number of 2369 would:
write in the boxes: 0 1 / / / / / 2 3 6 9
and mark in the vertical lines: 0 1 N/A N/A 0 0 0 0 2 3 6 9
