An applicant who seeks litigation rights in criminal proceedings must, at the same time, make an application for rights of audience in open court proceedings.
16. The applicant must provide the following information about their experience:
 - Total years advocacy experience and the number of years' experience in advocacy gained as a fee earner;

19. In their application, applicants will need to satisfy IPS that they have an appropriate level of knowledge of law and practice, experience and skills to enable them to undertake the rights of audience skills course and upon successful completion of that course, to exercise the right of audience they seek.

Evaluating Advocacy Experience

20. IPS will need to be satisfied that an applicant is actively undertaking advocacy. In considering whether an applicant is an active advocate, IPS will take into account advocacy experience that an applicant has gained outside their normal area of work. It will also take into account that advocacy is part of the dispute resolution process and may be reflected in successful case preparation, negotiation, arbitration and mediation.
21. IPS will also need to be satisfied that applicants have extensive first hand experience of the style and standards of practice and advocacy expected in the course for which they are seeking extended rights of audience.
22. An applicant will be expected to have observed advocacy in those areas where currently no rights of audience exist, but where they will be granted rights upon completion of the course. Applicants will be required to state the number of cases they have observed and indicate the nature of the cases concerned.
23. IPS will take a balanced view about an applicant's experience in deciding whether it is sufficient to grant them a Certificate of Eligibility, particularly where they rely in part on observed advocacy.
24. IPS will recognise that applicants could have had a break in their experience due to factors such as career breaks, job changes, maternity or paternity leave, long term illness, or disability. IPS will not discriminate directly or indirectly against an applicant whose experience has been affected in this way. However, IPS will need to ensure that an applicant has an acceptable level of experience.

25. Where an applicant has had a break in their experience, they may provide details of experience gained during a different period when they were more actively engaged in practice in the area where rights are sought. However, the break must not have been longer than 5 years. In exceptional circumstances, applications may be accepted from applicants who have had a break longer than 5 years.

26. There may be other factors which affect an applicant's experience in the preceding 2 years. IPS will consider details of more active periods from applicants whose experience discloses a pattern that they regard as atypical.

ANNEX 4

ASSESSMENT CRITERIA AND FRAMEWORK DOCUMENT FOR ADVOCACY SKILLS COURSES

GENERAL

Assessment Criteria

The competence of candidates will be assessed in accordance with the criteria set out in this annex by means of case studies relating to a trial or an application.

Assessment Standard

The standard of competence for each assessment will be 50% and candidates will be required to meet this standard of attainment for each formal assessment to attain an overall level of competence. This requirement only applies to formal assessments and candidates will not be required to reach this standard on the formative assessments which will take place at various stages during the Advocacy Skills Course. Course providers will decide which assessments will be formally assessed.

The Assessment Organisation(s) will be required to develop their own mark and weighting bands for each element of the formal assessment criteria to be approved by IPS. Assessors should have the flexibility to mark in between the weighting bands devised by the Assessment Organisation(s).

Assessors will retain a general discretion to determine overall competence even if a candidate reaches the appropriate mark of 50% in each formal assessment. The following is a non-exhaustive list of examples that may affect the assessor's overall assessment of competence:

- errors relating to gross professional misconduct;
- fundamental errors of law / evidence / procedure;
- making a majority of submissions from a prepared script;
- engaging in inappropriate court room behaviour.

Written Test

The standard that candidates seeking open court rights of audience will be required to achieve in evidence will be comparable to the standard required generally. However, the marks required to achieve a comparable standard may be higher than 50% where a multiple choice question format is adopted. The nature of the written test and the proposed standard of competence will be considered by the Admissions and Licensing Committee.

Resubmissions

A candidate who is assessed as being not yet competent in one or more of the formal assessments will be allowed one further opportunity to achieve the required standard of competence in relation to that assessment(s). If they are successful they may be awarded a pass mark. If they are still assessed as being not yet competent on this resubmission then they will be required to undertake all the assessments again before they can achieve the appropriate level of competence.

A candidate who is unable to complete one or more of the formal assessments owing to ill health or other such cause, beyond their control, will be allowed a further opportunity to achieve the required standard of competence.

Professional Conduct

Case studies will enable candidates to be assessed on their ability to recognise and deal with issues of professional and ethical conduct in the course of advocacy. The conduct issues to be assessed may include:

- ◆ The overriding duty to the court.
- ◆ The duty not to engage in conduct which is dishonest/discreditable, prejudicial to the administration of justice or likely to diminish public confidence in the administration of justice or the legal profession.
- ◆ The duty to the client to promote and protect their interests, to act in good faith towards them and to avoid or deal with any conflict.
- ◆ The interests of the client and the advocate, their employer and any other party to the proceedings.
- ◆ The duty not to discriminate against, nor treat less favourably any person, including the client, on the grounds of their age, race, colour, ethnic or national origin, sex, sexual orientation, religion or political persuasion of the client.
- ◆ The duty of confidentiality in relation to a client's affairs and misuse of confidential information.
- ◆ The duties owed to other advocates in court.

- (4) An Authorised Body that wishes to conduct any regulated legal activity other than one forming part of its original authorisation must, before doing so, apply to IPS for a modification to its authorisation. Any application for such a modification must be made in the form prescribed by IPS. IPS will assess any such application:
- (a) as if it was an application for authorisation under these Rules;
and
 - (b) by reference to its risk assessment framework;

and will notify the Authorised Body of its decision within a timescale specified by IPS.

- (5) An Authorised Body must notify IPS of any material change that may affect its ability to comply with these Rules, any other IPS Rules or the CILEx Code of Conduct. - (6) An Authorised Body, its Approved Managers and Authorised Persons are subject to the CILEx Code of Conduct and all applicable IPS Rules.
- (7) IPS may require an Authorised Body to meet specified compliance requirements or agree to specified conditions if it decides that the Authorised Body has failed or may be unlikely to meet any of the requirements of the CILEx Code of Conduct or IPS Rules.  - (b) an Authorised Body has provided inaccurate or misleading information or there has been a material omission, delay, or failure to provide information to IPS;

- (11) An Authorised Body must inform IPS as soon as reasonably practicable if that body or any Authorised Person or Approved Manager is subject to any matter identified in Rule 11 of IDAR (prior conduct).
- (12) Where any individual designated as an Approved Manager is no longer employed by an Authorised Body or can no longer carry out their role as an Approved Manager, the Authorised Body must inform IPS as soon as reasonably practicable prior to this change taking place, or where this has not been possible within 28 days of the change taking place.

- (16) Authorised Bodies will be required to provide Annual Returns. IPS will determine the format and information requirements for such returns.
- (17) A failure to supply a completed Annual Return within the timescale specified by IPS will constitute a breach of Paragraph (9)(b).
- (18) An Authorised Body must pay IPS the periodic fee(s) of such amounts and at such times as IPS may prescribe.

Managers and the Compliance Manager

5. (1) An Authorised Body must have at least one Manager. All Managers must apply to be designated as Approved Managers by IPS. One Manager must also be designated as Compliance Manager and must consent to being designated as such.

- (d) record any compliance failures and make such records available to IPS on request and in any event at least annually as part of the annual return submitted to IPS.

Fit and proper test

- 6. (1) In determining whether an Approved Manager is fit and proper for the purpose of these Rules, IPS will consider the person's character, suitability, fitness and propriety having regard to:
 - (a) the person's ability to comply with the professional principles in section 1(3) of the Act; and

Regulatory Conflict

8. (1) If a conflict arises between a requirement imposed on an Authorised Body or on an employee or Manager of the body by IPS as the regulator of that body, and on an individual Manager or employee of that body by another approved regulator, then the requirement imposed by IPS prevails over the requirement imposed by the other approved regulator.
- (2) If a conflict arises between a requirement imposed on a non-IPS authorised body or on an employee or Manager of that body by another approved regulator as the regulator of that body and on an individual Manager or employee of that body by IPS, then the requirement imposed by the other approved regulator prevails over the requirement imposed by IPS.

APPENDIX 5
CODE OF CONDUCT

The CILEx Code of Conduct

This is the Code of Conduct (the Code) of the Chartered Institute of Legal Executives (CILEx) and its regulatory body, ILEX Professional Standards Limited (IPS). It sets out the principles to which CILEx members, CILEx practitioners and Authorised Bodies must adhere in their conduct, practice and professional performance, and the outcomes they must meet.

- develop and use your professional knowledge and skills for the benefit of those who use your services
- maintain good professional relationships with others
- act in a way that promotes confidence and trust in the legal professions and the provision of legal services.

Core Principles

The Principles Explained

Each core principle is supported by a series of outcomes. You must adhere to the principles and meet the outcomes.

Where IPS provides guidance to the Code of Conduct, this is not exhaustive but is intended to help you to understand our expectations of you. APPENDIX 7

FIRST TIER COMPLAINTS HANDLING REQUIREMENTS

ILEX PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS LTDGUIDANCE ON COMPLAINTS HANDLING

1. One of the requirements of Principle 5 of the Code of Conduct is that those regulated by IPS must inform clients fully and honestly about their complaints procedures including their right to refer a complaint to the Legal Ombudsman or IPS where appropriate. This guidance sets out what you must do to comply with this requirement.
2. This guidance applies to all CILEx members, CILEx practitioners and Authorised Bodies. You must take all practicable steps to make sure that:
 - complaints handling procedures provide effective safeguards for clients;
 - complaints are dealt with fully and promptly; and
 - appropriate redress is provided where necessary.

Even if you do not have direct responsibility for complaints handling policy or procedures within your entity or workplace you are expected to do what you can in your particular circumstances to comply with this guidance.

3. Clients should be given information about your entity's complaints handling procedure when client care letters are sent or at the point where instructions are accepted. Clear information should be given to clients at this time about their right to complain, how to make a complaint and who to make a complaint to. Clear information should be given to clients about their right to complain to the Legal Ombudsman if any complaint regarding the service provided by the entity is not resolved to their satisfaction. The information provided must include the role of the Legal Ombudsman service, contact details and timescales for making a complaint to the Legal Ombudsman.

4. The process for clients to make a complaint to the entity must be clear and simple for all clients to use, must be free of charge and make provision for complaints to be made by any reasonable means. Complaints should be dealt with quickly and, as far as possible, within the time limit which applies to the making of a complaint to the Legal Ombudsman (currently 8 weeks). At the end of any complaints process clients must be informed of their right to complain to the Legal Ombudsman, contact details of the Legal Ombudsman, how to make such complaint and the timescale for doing so.
5. Entities must provide information about the Legal Ombudsman service to their existing clients at the next appropriate time, whether or not a complaint has been made to the firm or is in prospect. This is a requirement of the Legal Services Board made under Section 112(2) of the Legal Services Act 2007.
6. If you have personal responsibility for client matters and your employer has not made arrangements to comply with this guidance (or guidance or rules issued by another legal services regulator such as the SRA or the CLC) you should inform your clients of the complaints handling procedures of the entity and make sure they receive the necessary information about the Legal Ombudsman service.
7. Where your entity is regulated by IPS, include in client care letters and concluding correspondence statements that as your regulator IPS:
 - may seek access to the clients papers and that, in these circumstances, you will grant IPS access unless the client objects; and
 - administers a consumer feedback programme and that the client's comments are welcomed. The statement shall advise the client of the online programme and the alternative arrangements for participation for those without online access.

8. If a complaint is made by one of your clients or your employer's clients, a full record of the way the complaint is handled should be kept separate from the main client file. A log of all complaints made by clients should also be kept.

9. If a complaint is made to the Legal Ombudsman or IPS by one of your clients or your employers' clients, you must cooperate with the Ombudsman and IPS and assist them to deal with the complaint. This is a requirement of Principle 4 of the Code of Conduct.

10. For the purpose of this guidance a complaint is an oral or written expression of dissatisfaction which alleges that the complainant has suffered or may suffer financial loss, distress, inconvenience or other detriment.
